PRE-TRANSFER COURSE WORK AND TRANSFER CREDIT: Courses in calculus, chemistry, calculus-based physics and computer science are recommended. On a space available basis, students may take the SEAS applied mathematics (calculus) series and chemistry and physics for engineers offered by the College of Arts and Sciences (CLAS). Equivalent CLAS courses in these areas are also acceptable. However, in the latter case, the student may wish to check for equivalence with SEAS before taking the course. Courses taken in the CLAS in the humanities and social science areas are generally acceptable for transfer credit to satisfy similar degree requirements within SEAS.
